Who we are

The Conservative Animal Welfare Foundation is an independent organisation which seeks to advance farm animal welfare and the lives of animals in the UK and around the world. Our small but impactful team is made up of leading experts in the field of animal welfare, research, politics and public affairs.

Lorraine Platt - Founder

Lorraine is one of the Founders of the Conservative Animal Welfare Foundation. She is former Vice Chairman of a leading animal welfare charity, and has received a variety of awards and recognition from leading animal welfare organisations, including the RSPCA and IFAW. Lorraine is the public face of the organisation's campaigning, providing strategic direction, and is responsible for directing the daily campaigns operations.

Chris Platt - Founder

Chris is one of the Conservative Animal Welfare Foundation's Founders. He is Vice President of a Surrey Conservative Party Association and the former Chairman. Chris worked in international finance before moving full time onto the Board of the Conservative Animal Welfare Foundation. Chris works on the daily operations of the organisation and provides strategic oversight to the campaigns and corporate management functions.

Ems Barr – Political Advisor

Ems is a former Special Adviser to the Transport Secretary Grant Shapps and Head of Communications for the Centre for Policy Studies and CCHQ Press Officer. Working with Westminster decision makers of all political persuasions, Ems supports the Conservative Animal Welfare Foundation's many high-profile campaigns which help to advance animal welfare, and offers advice and strategic guidance on key animal welfare issues.

“ Thank you (Lorraine Platt) for everything you have done to transform the perception of animal welfare in the Conservative Party.

The Late Sir David Amess MP, CAWF Patron

Philip Mansbridge - Director of Programs

Philip is a well-known advocate for animals with extensive experience in the animal welfare sector. He has previously headed up organisations including the International Fund for Animal Welfare (IFAW UK), Care for the Wild International and ProVeg UK, as well as working with many other leading animal charities. Philip specialises in working with stakeholders from all sides of the debate to find pragmatic solutions that advance animal welfare.

Sophia Stileman - Head of Communications

Sophia has worked as a political consultant for several years, first at Westbourne Communications and later at Atlas Partners. She is passionate about animal welfare and in 2019 she was awarded the PRCA's Best Young Political Consultant in the UK. Her involvement in Conservative politics stems from university, where she co-founded 'Generative Conservative', the youth contingent of the oldest conservative think-tank in the UK, the Bow Group.

Steve McCulloch - Head of Research

Steven is a Senior Lecturer in Human-Animal Studies, at the Centre for Animal Welfare at the University of Winchester. He specialises in animal health and welfare policy and is a qualified veterinary surgeon with a PhD in the political representation of sentient species. Steven is a diplomat of the European College of Animal Welfare and Behavioural Medicine and a recognised veterinary specialist in Animal Welfare Science, Ethics and Law.

“ ...they (CAWF) have done an amazing job and they are pioneering some really important policy work.

Dominic Raab MP, Former Deputy Prime Minister

Our work

The Conservative Animal Welfare Foundation campaigns to advance animal welfare through raising awareness of key animal welfare related issues within Government and beyond. We produce a variety of highly regarded reports on such issues, and amplify our messages via traditional media and social media. We work with stakeholders across the board to raise animal welfare standards.

Reports

Our reports and briefings help inform MPs, Lords and other stakeholders about the animal welfare issues we campaign on. Highly regarded, they have featured in numerous media outlets including The Times, The Telegraph, The Guardian and many more, as well as trade publications.

In recent years, our reports have included:

- Ending Live Exports
- Ending Farrowing Crates \(2020\) and Ending Pig Farrowing Crates \(2022\)
- Banning Cages for Laying Hens and The Case for Ending Beak Trimming
- Fish Welfare, The Welfare of Farmed Fish at Time of Killing and Fish Sentience Briefing, The Case for Regular Inspections and Mandatory CCTV in Fish Slaughterhouses and Crustacean Sentience Briefing
- Cleaner Fish - the Millions of Hidden Casualties of the Salmon Industry
- Mandatory Labelling Research Report
- Non-stun Slaughter
- The Unpalatable Truth – Report on Industrial Animal Agriculture and Climate Change

Consultation & evidence submissions

We are a solution focused organisation and regularly contribute to written consultations and calls for evidence in our areas of expertise. We are mindful of all stakeholders and keen to ensure that the information we provide is pragmatic, scientific and accurate.

In recent years, we have submitted evidence and data to consultations including:

- Farming Investment Fund \(Animal Health and Welfare Pathway\)
- Joint Fisheries Strategy
- Gene Editing
- Cat and Dog Microchipping
- Ending Trophy Hunting Imports
- Welfare of Fish at the Time of Killing
- Banning Third Party Puppy Sales
- Ending Fur imports

We work closely with Conservative MPs to enhance their knowledge of topics of interest relating to animal welfare.

This includes issuing briefings, helping with amendments, sharing of reports, polling and new data, and 1-2-1 tailored advice and support as required. Additionally we hold events and receptions to brief about key animal related issues and challenges.

In recent years, this has included activities such as:

- Joint Parliamentary Reception with RSPCA and Humane League UK on Hen Caging \(Prohibition\) Bill \(Beatrice's Bill\)
- Joint Parliamentary Reception with Conservative Environment Network \(CEN\) on animal welfare opportunities post-Brexit
- Joint Parliamentary Reception with Stop Live Exports Petition Team and Compassion in World Farming on Live Exports.
- Supporting MPs with Amendments for the Kept Animals Bill
- Annual Party Conference Events and Receptions with speakers including Dominic Raab MP, Deputy Prime Minister and George Eustice MP, Secretary of State for the Environment, Food and Rural Affairs

“ I would also like to take this opportunity to thank Lorraine Platt for the work she has done through the Conservative Animal Welfare Foundation to campaign towards several of the measures that we are bringing forward here today.

George Eustace MP, Former Secretary of State for the Environment, Food and Rural Affairs on introducing the Animal Welfare (Kept Animals) Bill at Second Reading in the House of Commons
